

Our Memory Café session provides a warm and friendly environment where you can socialize, build friendships and pick up information from local health and community organizations that provide support. This program is ideal for those who have been diagnosed with early Alzheimer disease and/or related dementias, those who worry about memory problems, and their care partners.

- Educational sessions from community organizations relating to brain health and education
- Discussion topics and conversation
- Focus on the arts – music, movement and art, guest speakers with expertise
- Guest speakers focusing on interesting hobbies, incorporating hands on workshops
- Participants bring ideas to discuss: focus on travel, things to do in Toronto or a book or movie!
